

24-295

SETTING THE MOON

a comedy in two-acts

CHARACTERS:

SETH COLSON, seventies, lively co-owner of Lenny's Cafe

LENNY COLSON, seventies, spritely in mind and body, co-owner/operator of Lenny's Café

EVAN TRAYNOR, mid-twenties, drifter

THE RACCOON, late-teens, local teenager going through trying times

TIME: the present

PLACE: Lenny's Café, a small family-style restaurant in Central Montana.

SET REQUIREMENT: one interior

A drifter attempts to rob a remote café in Montana only to be confronted by a caring and clever owner/operator.